Saturday Oct 28th

1st - LA MISERIA DELUXE (Portugal)

take pieces of raw tango and marinate in red wine - add tuba violin accordion combined with screaming and crying and you've got yourself PIRATE TANGO.

Stolen from the large aseptic halls and returning to the contamination of the old taverns, where mixed together are laughter, despair and poetic deliriums with the breath of alcohol, tobacco and sweat. Glass in hand and accordion in fist, a bohemian, visceral and underworld dance of poetic delirium, love and loss, life and death.

2nd - LES TROIS COUPS (France)

A quartet from Lille bridging the gap between burlesque acrobatics street theatre and music. inspired by the reactions of the crowd homing their crafts and quick witticisms on the streets, Les Trois Coups has developed a true closeness and a relationship with the sincere and spontaneous public that makes their shows enchanting riveting and full of impoverished improvised joy! But they are scary too! <http://troiscoups.com/>

And back by popular demand (ten years later)

THE DEAD BROTHERS -(Switzerland)

The world's greatest death blues funeral trash orchestra. Bavarian hillbilly meets Baltic bluegrass via Dashiell Hammett, Georges Brassens and the Marquis de Sade. When the fog lifts and the winds shift, things are rarely what they seem..

The sound is bewildering, poisonous and intimate at the same time.

Fiddles, mandolins , a marching drum, tuba, a great pump pedal organ from the turn of last century, banjos, the sixties twangy Hop guitar, Hawaiian lap-steel, a singing saw and other hobo suitcase percussion create a medieval mythological world that stings the epicenter of your soul!
